CIVIL ACTION NO.:

Magistrate Judge: Tim A. Baker

ORDER AUTHORIZING PAYMENT OF FEES TO RECEIVER, ATTORNEYS FOR RECEIVER AND ACCOUNTANTS FOR RECEIVER

The Receiver, Bradley W. Skolnik, has filed his Second Motion for Interim Compensation of Bradley W. Skolnik as Receiver and Second Motion for Interim Compensation of Law Firms and Accounting Firm Retained by Receiver (the "Receiver's Fee Requests"),

And the Court being duly advised and having considered the evidence hereby finds that the Receiver's Fee Requests and the request that the payment of fees are to be made from the "E-Trade Account" in the name of the Receiver Defendant Churchmen's Investment Corporation are hereby GRANTED subject to a complete reservation of rights by all interested parties that the Court's approval of the Receiver's Fee Requests does not constitute an adjudication of any ownership, entitlement or lien rights with respect to the funds in the "E-Trade Account" in the name of the Receiver Defendant Churchmen's Investment Corporation.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

- a) That the law firm of Stewart & Irwin, P.C. is awarded an interim allowance of compensation for legal services and expenses incurred in this proceeding through September 19, 2006 in the amount of $40,444.47.

- d) That Bradley W. Skolnik is awarded an interim allowance of compensation for services rendered and expenses incurred in his capacity as Receiver through September 1, 2006 in the amount of $82,601.56.
- e) Nothing in this Order constitutes an adjudication of any ownership, entitlement or lien rights with respect to the funds in the "E-Trade Account" in the name of the Receiver Defendant Churchmen's Investment Corporation and all interested parties (including without limitation the Receiver and Southern Michigan Bank & Trust, as indenture trustee) reserve all of their rights with respect to all such issues.
